

Although it isn't currently available in my area, I think LOCAL traffic and weather would be a fantastic service via XM. I am paying for their service monthly and would like to receive more benefits if possible. If they have the ability to provide this local information, I cannot see any reason why it should be delayed or even prohibited.